

THE GOOD PEOPLE

Presented by Changing Minds,
in Partnership with Skills of the Modern Age
Supported by NTU Career & Attachment Office

THE GOOD PEOPLE – TRAINING PROGRAM SCHOLARSHIPS

Changing Minds is offering 4 full fee scholarships for The Good People social innovation and design program, which is running for 5 weeks from the 14th November 2021.

Conditions

1. Applications are open from the 27th August until the 22nd October 2021. Applications received after the 22nd of October will not be accepted.
2. Application is open to any young person aged between 18 & 30 years of age who are Singaporean citizens or permanent residents.
3. Applicants must be involved or wanting to get involved in activities that support and address youth mental health and wellbeing, including:
  - a. Launching a new project or program
  - b. Working or volunteering for an organization involved in youth mental health and wellbeing activities
  - c. Part of a grassroots collective addressing youth mental health and wellbeing
  - d. Wanting to support an existing project, program or organization through volunteering.
4. The successful applicants agree to commit to completing the 5-week program, including attendance at all online live workshops – unless reasonably unable to attend.
5. Successful applicants agree to publish at least 4 positive posts on social media relating to the program and tagging Changing Minds. These posts should include:
  - a. At least 1 post upon notification of successful awarding of a scholarship
  - b. At least 1 post in the week before starting the program
  - c. At least 1 post mid-course, and
  - d. At least 1 post in the week following the end of the program

- e. Course related images and Changing Minds logo and social media handles to be supplied by Changing Minds.
6. Upon notification of a successful application, submit an electronic copy of a photograph of yourself for use in Changing Minds promotional media.
7. Successful applicants to submit a brief written statement upon completion of the course talking about their experience, what they learnt and how they intend to apply their learnings.
8. Scholarships are not transferrable or exchangeable for cash or credit and can only be used by the original applicant and for the current program.
9. Successful applicants who, for whatever reason, are unable to participate in the program agree to notify Changing Minds by email, as soon as practically possible.

Application

To apply for one of the 4 available scholarships please submit by email, a document in Word or PDF format that includes the following:

1. Your full name
2. Your gender
3. Your date of birth
4. Your email address
5. Your NRIC No.
6. A short statement – up to 300 words – addressing:
  - a. Why you want to participate in The Good People program and what you hope to get from the course
  - b. How you are currently involved, or how you intend to get involved in activities that address youth mental health & wellbeing
  - c. A brief bio
7. The following signed and dated statement:
“In submitting this application, I agree to all the conditions of the Changing Minds, The Good People scholarship program. Signed: _____ Date: _____”

All applications will be reviewed by members of the Changing Minds team following closure of the application timeframe and successful applications chosen. All applicants will be notified by email on the status of their application following the review period.

Please submit your application by email to info@changingminds.co with the subject “The Good People Scholarship” by Friday 22nd October at the latest.

If you have any questions, please contact Andrew on the details below.

Thank you for your interest in our scholarship program and Good Luck!

---

For more information on Changing Minds Ltd contact:

Andrew Rigg - CEO

E: andrew@changingminds.co

M/WA: +65 9868 2831

